Your Yearly Relationship Report

This report will give you an in-depth look at some of your personal relationships over a period of time, usually one year, but sometimes longer depending upon what you requested. Each person in your life that you wanted to know about has his or her own section that tells how he or she will relate to you in the given time period. Thus, if you had asked to do three different people for a certain year, you will have a section for each person. In a similar manner, all the people for one particular year will be in the same major section. If you have more than one year, there will be chapters in this report based upon each of the years. The years go by your age. So, if you are currently 45 years old and had asked for two years of reports, there will be a chapter for Age 45 and one for Age 46, and within each of those chapters will be a section for each person on your list of Friends that you wanted your report for.

The Connections between You

The method that we use to determine influences and compatibility between people uses what we call Connections. These connections usually have planetary names, such as Mercury, Venus, Mars, etc. But some have other names like Displacement, Result, or Environment. In all cases, the connection between you and someone else is derived from their relationship to you in the current year's cards. Every connection will be explained as they occur so you do not need to understand this system in order to benefit from this report.

These yearly influences between you and those you know are important. You can find that one year you are very compatible with someone and then it changes dramatically after your next birthday. Another common example is where someone is playing a prominent role in your life but then just sort of fades away as the year ends. Both these examples can be explained by the yearly relationship influences. It is definitely helpful to know what these influences are ahead of time. It is good, however, to keep in mind that you have life-long influences with everyone in your life, which are, in most respects, more important and more powerful than the yearly influences that come and go. This report intentionally does not touch upon these but you should be aware of them nonetheless. If you would like to learn more about your life-long connections with others, you can read the book, Love Cards, or get a regular relationship report where you got this one.

Regular verses Underlying Card Connections

Sometimes you will have connections with someone that come from a connection to them as an Underlying Card. This can be often or not at all. Underlying Card connections are not quite as strong or powerful as the regular connections. As you read about the connections you have with each person on your list, keep this in mind. Having a regular connection with someone is a much greater influence and gives a much stronger probability that the two of you will have some important interactions in the given year. There is no way to determine exactly how less significant the Underlying Card connections are, but they are. We hope you enjoy this report. We think you will find it insightful, accurate, and helpful in your understanding of the influence of others in your life.

Relationship Connections for Gabrielle Age 20 with Armand born 4/25/1995

Armand is Uranus to You This Year

Uranus is called the planet of the unexpected. It rules high technologies, real estate, astrology, and things that happen without warning. Having Armand as a Uranus person to you this year means primarily that you will not be able to predict when and where you will see them. He will seem a little erratic from your point of view, even if he is actually a very reliable type personality. The rule for Uranus relationships is 'you can't have any attachment to this person.' If the nature of your relationship with Armand allows this rule to be carried out, this connection should be no problem. However, if your relationship demands in some way that you know when and where Armand will be in your life, you may find yourself becoming very frustrated at himself as the year progresses. For example, if Armand was someone who worked for you, you may become irritated at his lack of punctuality or the fact that he didn't show up at that important meeting when you were really counting on himself. If you are romantically involved with Armand you may also experience some uncertainty about himself. Will he show up or not? This is a connection that must be allowed freedom and as little expectation as possible. If you can do this, you will find that Armand will be there when it is most important. This is the connection of friendship and true friendship does not have expectations. This year you are being given an opportunity to develop just that kind of true friendship with Armand.

Key Phrases for this Connection

Though Armand seems to never be reliable and I never seem to know whether he is coming or going, this is not his intention.

Armand can help me break free of attachments this year, and in doing so, become a true friend.

Armand is helping me let go of needless expectations.

You are Moon to Armand This Year

During this year, one of your cards falls into a Moon position in relationship to Armand. First and foremost, this connection guarantees a certain amount of compatibility and intimacy. You will enjoy talking with Armand and find that you have a greater interest in himself than usual. This connection also puts you in a somewhat feminine position in relationship to Armand. What this means is that he may feel like leading you more and that you will find yourself following himself in certain ways. This should be fine for both of you, however, as the closeness you share has mutual rewards. Sometimes a person who we are Moon to can show us new directions for our life, or open up new possibilities for us. In return, we give them our attention and appreciation and by doing so we have a beautiful exchange of energies. Regardless of what sort of relationship you have with Armand, it will benefit from this connection if you both simply allow the energy to flow. Your lifetime connections with Armand will also play a role in your relationship as they always do. But this connection brings a period of greater ease between you and heightened communication along with the possibility of greater intimacy.

Key Phrases for this Connection

Armand is opening up new vistas for me for which I am very grateful.

I enjoy my communications with Armand.

I am encouraged to offer my support to Armand in whatever way seems appropriate.

Armand is Venus to You This Year

The fact that Armand falls in a Venus position in relationship to you this year is a very good sign that the two of you will enjoy being together this year in whatever capacity you find yourselves in. This connection guarantees a certain amount of compatibility and ease of being together and would even help mitigate other connections between you that may be difficult.

Armand may also play an important role during your Venus period. Check the other cards present at that time to determine just what that role may involve. Mostly it depends upon what kind of relationship the two of you have. If this is a romantic relationship, you could not ask for a better influence for love, marriage or romance. This connection would be considered to be a good omen for future development. If this is just friends, family or business you will discover that things go more smoothly between you and that you enjoy being with Armand more than usual. Whatever activities the two of you may be involved in, things will tend to go more smoothly and you will enjoy the time spent together. In business, this connection also tends to cause more financial success in activities you are both involved in. No matter what the exact nature of your relationship with Armand, you will find that things will go smoother between you and that you are more likely to have fun together.

Key Phrases for this Connection

I feel great harmony between Armand and myself this year.
I am grateful for the compatibility I have with Armand this year.
Armand and I seem to have a lot in common this year.

*The Connections from this point forward all come from Underlying Cards.
These Connections are considered to be less significant than regular ones.*

Armand is Jupiter to You This Year

Having Armand as a Jupiter influence in your cards this year is a good omen for you. Jupiter is generally considered one of the best influences and benefits all areas, but especially finances. Depending upon the nature of your relationship with Armand, this could have several desirable outcomes. First of all, this connection helps with how well you get along with Armand this year. He will feel more gently disposed to you this year as well as encouraged to be helpful to you. You may find that the two of you seem to click more and seem to have more in common. If the nature of your relationship allows it, Armand will be financially helpful to you. If he is either a spouse or a business partner, you could see some definite financial rewards coming to you through their actions or support. For example, if Armand is your spouse, this connection is a very strong indicator of them having a lot of financial success, which ultimately benefits you at the same time. He could even offer sound financial advice or direction. Since he is essentially Jupiter to you this entire year, follow their direction whenever possible and make sure you let himself know that you are appreciative of his efforts. Your other cards in your Jupiter period may indicate specific areas that Armand's involvement may benefit you. And he will mostly likely have some important role this year during your Jupiter period. Even if Armand is just a friend or family member their influence will be beneficial to you in many ways this year. All in all, this is a connection to be thankful for as will definitely help you in one or more important ways.

Key Phrases for this Connection

I am grateful for the many blessings Armand brings to me this year.
I open myself to receive the gifts being offered by Armand and take time to acknowledge himself and his contributions.

Armand is Moon to You This Year

This particular influence guarantees that Armand will be a helpful and supportive influence for you this year. Though your lifetime connections with himself may vary, this particular year will put Armand in a more feminine role in relationship to you. What this means is that he will be more likely to take your lead in affairs concerning you both. He may also look to you for direction. Depending upon the nature of your relationship this could be an important factor. This Moon connection makes it very important that you know where you want to go this year. Otherwise Armand may be confused by this connection. Overall, this connection guarantees good communication and you will notice that you feel better when Armand is around. It will help your overall compatibility during this year. Hopefully, he will allow himself to be in this supportive role without resistance. This will usually be the case except in rare instances where Armand would be such a leadership kind of person that he would find it difficult to follow someone else or be in a supportive role. Make the best of this connection by setting goals and plans for the year that Armand can help you achieve.

Key Phrases for this Connection

I feel supported by Armand this year in important ways.
Armand is helping me progress towards my goals this year.
I am grateful for the support I feel from Armand this year.

Armand is a Cosmic Reward (or Result Card) Influence to You This Year

This connection is one of the most powerful that exists in a yearly reading as an indicator of 'ending up with someone.' What it tells you is that you have a strong possibility of ending up with Armand by your next birthday. The exact nature of how you two will end up together will be defined by what sort of possibilities exist for you now. For example, this can be a marriage influence if Armand is a potential candidate for that and you are available and desiring that. If Armand is just a friend or business associate, you may find that the two of you end this year being together in a more concrete way, such as working together or sharing a living space, etc. One important facet of this connection is that whatever the exact nature of your being together, Armand will be a blessing in your life at that time, perhaps a dream come true. This is considered a very positive connection. However, the Result, or Cosmic Reward Card, is connected to the Pluto Card each year. You would be wise to examine your Pluto Card(s) because they would indicate what sorts of transformations and changes you will need to make before you get the blessing of having Armand in your life in a more substantial way. These changes are important to you personally even though they may be somehow connected to Armand.

Key Phrases for this Connection

There is a good possibility that I will end this year with Armand playing a significant role in my life.

Though challenging at times, I know that ultimately Armand will be a blessing in my life this year.

Armand sometimes brings up intense feelings in me.

Armand is Saturn to You This Year

Saturn is considered one of the more difficult placements in the cards. Usually someone who is Saturn to us will be a burden or source of limitation to us during that time. Therefore, it is highly likely that Armand will be that sort of burden or limitation in your life this year, but especially during your Saturn period of the year. There are many possible ways this could manifest depending upon what sort of relationship you have with Armand in the first place. Sometimes a Saturn person is someone who gets ill and becomes a burden for a time. In other instances a Saturn person will do something that causes us problems or aggravation, usually the result of something we did to them in the past. But Saturn people can also be our doctors or teachers. If you have actually chosen Armand to be your teacher in some way this year, this connection would be considered very positive. Saturn people tend to be a hardship on us, or criticize us or both. This would not be a good connection for example if Armand is your lover or spouse. This would mean that they would be a major problem for you this year, but again, especially during the Saturn period. Whatever the exact nature of your relationship with Armand, study your cards in the Saturn period to learn more about what potential situation may develop between you. The good news is that generally this influence dissipates by the end of your Saturn period, leaving the rest of the year free for other more harmonious energies to develop between you.

Key Phrases for this Connection

Armand can teach me some important things this year if I am open to learn.

Armand seems to criticize me a lot this year.

Armand is a burden or source of restriction to me this year.

Armand can help me in important areas if I am willing to look at my own self-judgements and criticisms.
